

Majella Finnegan

Lecturer

Department of Humanities

Majella is a graduate of Waterford Institute of Technology where she completed a BA (Hons) degree in Recreation and Leisure Management. She also holds an MA in Youth and Community Work from Brunel University.

She has ten years' experience within the youth work sector, working with organisation such as Foróige, the Prince's Trust Programme (UK), Clondalkin Drugs Task Force and Wexford ETB. Majella is currently pursuing a doctorate in Youth Work at Maynooth University.