

Tracy Whyte

Tracy Whyte is the Early Years Professional Practice Coordinator for the Departments of Humanities and Lifelong Learning. Tracy completed her undergraduate studies in Early Childhood Education and Care in IT Carlow, followed by an MA Child Family & Community Studies in Dublin Institute of Technology. She has also obtained practitioner certification in HighScope. She initially joined IT Carlow as an associate lecturer in 2015 and moved into her current role in 2016. Tracy has worked as an early year's educator, as a parent support coordinator on an Area Based Childhood early intervention programme and as a family visitor on a child development programme. Tracy's research interests include the transition to parenthood and philosophy in early childhood.